Decision on Warning

In 2024, you posted a video of a colleague which you had taken during a patient procedure without consent. You also posted a video of a person in a state of extreme distress holding onto a ledge on the top floor of a hospital multi storey car park.

This conduct does not meet with the standards expected of nurses, midwives and nursing associates and could undermine public confidence in the nursing and midwifery professions.

The Code sets out the relevant standards of practice and behaviour at the following paragraphs:

- 5 Respect people's right to privacy and confidentiality
- 5.1 respect a person's right to privacy in all aspects of their care
- 5.3 respect that a person's right to privacy and confidentiality continues after they have died
- 20 Uphold the reputation of your profession at all times
- 20.1 keep to and uphold the standards and values set out in the Code

You have shown insight into your conduct and addressed any risks.
