   a. Any organisation or person employing, contracting with, or using you to undertake nursing work;
   b. Any agency you are registered with or apply to be registered with (at the time of application) to provide nursing or midwifery services;
   c. Any prospective employer (at the time of application) where you are applying for any nursing or midwifery appointment; and
   d. Any educational establishment at which you are undertaking a course of study connected with nursing or midwifery, or any such establishment to which you apply to take such a course (at the time of application).

This interim order will run for the period remaining on the original interim order.

At any review the panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order. In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel at an administrative meeting. Your case officer will write to you about this in due course.

Miss Fernandez should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.
At any time, Miss Fernandez or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

This decision will be confirmed to Miss Fernandez in writing.

That concludes this determination.
