 - d) Any educational establishment at which you are undertaking a course of study connected with nursing or midwifery, or any such establishment to which you apply to take such a course (at the time of application).

Unless your case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter.

At any review the panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order. In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel at an administrative meeting. Mrs Grandvoinet's case officer will write to her about this in due course.

Mrs Grandvoinet should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Grandvoinet or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

This decision will be confirmed to Mrs Grandvoinet in writing.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegation made against Mrs Grandvoinet .The NMC will write to her when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

That concludes this determination.
