Panel Secretary: Sophie Cubillo-Barsi
Nursing and Midwifery Council: Represented by Sophie Quinton-Carter
Sandra Louise Bickerton: Not present and not represented
Interim Order to be reviewed: Interim conditions of practice order – 18 months
Outcome of Review: Order replaced with an interim suspension order
Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim order at this meeting and Mrs Bickerton will be notified of that panel’s decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Bickerton is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Bickerton will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on her behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Bickerton must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Bickerton does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, the panel will review the interim order at a hearing which Mrs Bickerton will be invited to attend.

Mrs Bickerton should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Bickerton or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

This decision will be confirmed to Mrs Bickerton in writing.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegation made against Mrs Bickerton. The NMC will write to Mrs Bickerton when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

That concludes this determination.
