Area of registered address:	London

Nursing and Midwifery Council:	Represented by Sylvia McLean, Case Presenter
Miss Adefidiya:	Present and represented by Abbey Akinoshun
Interim order to be reviewed:	Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)
Outcome of review:	Interim suspension order

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and you will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, or there has been a request for an early review, a panel will review the interim order at a hearing which you will be invited to attend in person, send a representative on your behalf or submit written representations for the panel to consider.

At any such review hearing the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim suspension order or it may replace it with another order.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against you. The NMC will write to you when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to you in writing.

That concludes this determination.
