Nursing and Midwifery Council:	Represented by Alastair Kennedy, Case Presenter
Ms Nhamo:	Not present and unrepresented
Interim order to be reviewed:	Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)
Outcome of review:	Interim conditions of practice order replaced with an interim suspension order

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Ms Nhamo will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Ms Nhamo is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Ms Nhamo will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on her behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Ms Nhamo must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

At any such review hearing the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim suspension order or it may replace it with an interim conditions of practice order.

Ms Nhamo should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order. At any time, Ms Nhamo or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Ms Nhamo. The NMC will write to Ms Nhamo when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Ms Nhamo in writing.

That concludes this determination.
