Interim order directed: Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)

Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim conditions of practice order for a period of 18 months.

The panel has determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

‘For the purposes of these conditions, ‘employment’ and ‘work’ mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, ‘course of study’ and ‘course’ mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

- 1) You must only work for one substantive employer. You must not work for an agency.

The following conditions 2 – 5 shall apply if your work as a registered nurse requires you to provide clinical care to individual patients either directly or indirectly.

- 2) You must:
 - a) be directly supervised by another nurse when administering or managing medication;
 - b) when undertaking physical restraint of patients, except in an emergency situation, only be involved in the direct administration of restraint if assisted by another registered nurse;
 - c) be indirectly supervised at all other times, such supervision to consist of working on the same shift as but not directly observed by another registered nurse.
- 3) You must meet with your line manager mentor or supervisor monthly to discuss your performance and conduct with particular reference to medication administration and management, record-keeping, and the appropriate use of restraint and restraint techniques.

- 4) You must provide the NMC before any review of this order with a report from your line manager mentor or supervisor commenting on your conduct and performance, and any concerns in relation to medication administration and management, record-keeping, and the appropriate use of restraint and restraint techniques.
- 5) You must not be the nurse in charge on any shift.
- 6) You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
 - a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment;
 - b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.
- 7) You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:
 - a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
 - b) Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.
- 8) You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
 - a) Any organisation or person you work for.
 - b) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
 - c) Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.
- 9) You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
 - a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.
 - b) Any investigation started against you.
 - c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.

- 10) You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
- a) Any current or future employer.
 - b) Any educational establishment.
 - c) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions

Unless Mrs Kaye-Robinson's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mrs Kaye-Robinson or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review a panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mrs Kaye-Robinson. The NMC will write to Mrs Kaye-Robinson when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Kaye-Robinson in writing.

That concludes this determination.
