Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim conditions of practice order for a period of 15 months.

The panel has determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

1. You must only work for one substantive employer, namely your current employer, NHS Forth Valley.
2. You must not work night shifts.
3. At any time, you are working, you must not be the sole registered nurse on shift.

Unless your case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, you or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review a panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against you. The NMC will write to you when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to you in writing.

That concludes this determination.
