Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim suspension order for a period of 18 months.

Unless Mr Nica's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mr Nica or the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order, or it may confirm the interim order or it may replace the interim suspension order with an interim conditions of practice order.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegation made against Mr Nica. The NMC will keep Mr Nica informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mr Nica in writing.

That concludes this determination.
