Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mr Kelly will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mr Kelly is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mr Kelly will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mr Kelly's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mr Kelly must inform his case officer if he would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mr Kelly does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mr Kelly and his representative will be invited to attend.

Mr Kelly should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mr Kelly or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mr Kelly. The NMC will write to Mr Kelly when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mr Kelly in writing.

That concludes this determination.
