Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Miss Ramsden will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Miss Ramsden is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Miss Ramsden will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Miss Ramsden's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Miss Ramsden must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Miss Ramsden does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Miss Ramsden and her representative will be invited to attend.

Miss Ramsden should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Miss Ramsden or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Miss Ramsden. The NMC will write to Miss Ramsden when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This decision will be confirmed to Miss Ramsden in writing.

That concludes this determination.
