Interim order to be reviewed:	Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)
Outcome of review:	Interim conditions of practice order replaced with interim suspension order

Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to replace the current interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mrs Taylor will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Taylor is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Taylor will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mrs Taylor's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Taylor must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Taylor does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim suspension order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mrs Taylor and her representative will be invited to attend.

Mrs Taylor should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Taylor or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Mrs Taylor. The NMC will keep Mrs Taylor informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Taylor in writing.

That concludes this determination.
