Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mrs Massy will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Massy is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Massy will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mrs Massy's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Massy must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Massy does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mrs Massy and her representative will be invited to attend.

Mrs Massy should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Massy or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mrs Massy. The NMC will write to Mrs Massy when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Massy in writing.

That concludes this determination.
