Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to vary the current interim conditions of practice order.

The panel determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

1. [PRIVATE]
2. You must limit your work to one substantive employer. This can be an agency if working for a minimum period of three months.
3. [PRIVATE]
4. [PRIVATE]
5. [PRIVATE]
6. You must ensure that you are supervised by a registered nurse of Band 5 or above any time you are working. Your supervision must consist of:
 - a. Working at all times on the same shift as, but not always directly observed by, a registered nurse of Band 5 or above.
 - b. Fortnightly meetings with your supervisor/line manager [PRIVATE].
7. You must obtain a report from your supervisor/line manager summarising the content of these fortnightly meetings, and provide this to your case officer prior to the next review.

14. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
- a. Any clinical incident you are involved in.
 - b. Any investigation started against you.
 - c. Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.
15. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
- a. Any current or future employer.
 - b. Any educational establishment.
 - c. Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

Unless Mr Keeya's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mr Keeya or the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review a panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mr Keeya. The NMC will write to Mr Keeya when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mr Keeya in writing.

That concludes this determination.
