Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to vary the current interim conditions of practice order.

For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

1. You must limit your nursing practice to one substantive employer. This can be one identified agency and you must work in one single clinical setting for a period of no less than three months.

2. You must undertake a detailed written reflection in relation to the learning from your recent professional boundaries training and explain how this has changed your attitude and behaviour.

Your written reflection must be provided to your Case Officer before the next review hearing.

3. You must ensure that you are supervised by another registered nurse any time you are working. Your supervision must consist of working at all times on the same shift as, but not always directly observed by another registered nurse. For example, if you are working in the outpatient setting, you can work under the supervision of the outpatient nurse manager.

4. You must meet with your line manager, mentor, or supervisor fortnightly to discuss:

- a. your conduct in the workplace
- b. your maintenance of professional boundaries

5. Prior to any NMC review, you must send a report to your NMC case officer from your line manager, mentor, or supervisor specifically commenting on:
 - a. your conduct in the workplace
 - b. your maintenance of professional boundaries

6. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
 - a. Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
 - b. Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

7. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:
 - a. Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
 - b. Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.

8. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
 - a. Any organisation or person you work for.
 - b. Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
 - c. Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.

9. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
 - a. Any clinical incident you are involved in relating to inappropriate sexual touching.

- b. Any investigation started against you relating to inappropriate sexual touching.
 - c. Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you relating to inappropriate sexual touching.
10. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
- a. Any current or future employer.
 - b. Any educational establishment.
 - c. Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

The panel decided to vary this interim conditions of practice order and it will run for the remainder of the current interim order.

Unless Mr Lopez's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mr Lopez or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review, the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim conditions of practice order to be reviewed by a reviewing panel at an administrative meeting. Mr Lopez's case officer will write to him about this in due course.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Mr Lopez. The NMC will keep Mr Lopez informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mr Lopez in writing.

That concludes this determination.
