Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to replace the current interim conditions of practice order with and interim suspension order.

Unless Mr Parker's case has already been concluded or there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at a review meeting within the next six months and every six months thereafter. A panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mr Parker will be notified of the panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mr Parker is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mr Parker will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mr Parker's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mr Parker must inform his case officer if he would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mr Parker does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim suspension order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mr Parker and his representative will be invited to attend.

Mr Parker should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mr Parker or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mr Parker. The NMC will write to Mr Parker when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mr Parker in writing.

That concludes this determination.
