Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim suspension order for a period of 18 months.

Unless Mr Awwad's case has already been concluded or there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at a review meeting within the next six months and every six months thereafter. A panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Mr Awwad will be notified of the panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, or there has been a request for an early review, a panel will review the interim order at a hearing which Mr Awwad will be invited to attend in person, send a representative on Mr Awwad's behalf or submit written representations for the panel to consider. At any such review hearing the panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim suspension order or it may replace it with an interim conditions of practice order.

The NMC has referred Mr Awwad's case to the Investigating Committee. Once the NMC has completed its investigation, a panel of the Investigating Committee will consider whether Mr Awwad's entry on the register was incorrectly made or fraudulently procured and it will make a decision about what action to take.

This will be confirmed to Mr Awwad in writing.

That concludes this determination.
