Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim conditions of practice order.

The panel confirmed that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

1. You must limit your practice to working for one substantive employer. This must not be agency or bank work.

2. You must not be the nurse in charge of any shift.

3. You must ensure that you are directly supervised by another registered nurse any time you are administering medication until you have been formally assessed as competent to do so. You must send the completed assessment documents to the NMC prior to the next review hearing.

4. You must have fortnightly meetings with your line manager, mentor or supervisor to discuss:
    a) Your clinical performance
    b) [PRIVATE]

5. You must obtain a report from your line manager, mentor or supervisor and must send it to your NMC Case Officer prior to any review hearing. This report must include details of:
    a) Your clinical performance
    b) [PRIVATE]

6. [PRIVATE]

7. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
    a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
    b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

8. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:
    a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
    b) Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.

9. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
    a) Any organisation or person you work for.
    b) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
    c) Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.

10. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of Your becoming aware of:
    a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.
    b) Any investigation started against you.
    c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.

11. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
    a) Any current or future employer.
    b) Any educational establishment.

c) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions

Unless Ms Dunkin's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Ms Dunkin or the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review, a panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it; it may confirm the interim order; vary any condition of it; or replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee still has to deal with the allegations made against Ms Dunkin. The NMC will keep Ms Dunkin informed of developments regarding that issue.

This will be confirmed to Ms Dunkin in writing.

That concludes this determination.
