Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

If the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) applies for, and is granted, a High Court extension of this order, the interim order must be reviewed within six months of that date.

Alternatively, Mrs Harper is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Harper will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Mrs Harper's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Mrs Harper must inform her NMC Case Officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Harper does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Mrs Harper and/or her representative will be invited to attend.

Mrs Harper should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Mrs Harper or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Mrs Harper. The NMC will keep Mrs Harper informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Mrs Harper in writing.

That concludes this determination.
