Interim order directed:	Interim conditions of practice order (18 months)

Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim conditions of practice order for a period of 18 months.

The panel has determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

'For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.

1. You must limit your nursing practice to a single substantive employer. You must not undertake agency or bank work.

2. You must not act as the nurse in charge of any shift.

3. You must not be the only registered nurse on any shift.

4. You must not administer medicines unless directly supervised by another registered nurse. This supervision must consist of:
   a) Being directly observed when administering medicines until you have been assessed as competent to administer medicines independently.
   b) You will send your case officer evidence that you have successfully completed a medicines administration competency assessment within seven days of completion.

5. You must engage with your line manager, mentor or supervisor to ensure that you are making progress in relation to:

   a) Medicines administration.
   b) Documentation.
   c) Consent.

d) Communication.
e) Clinical decision making.

This must include meeting with your line manager, mentor or supervisor at least once every month to discuss your progress.

6. You will send the NMC a report seven days in advance of each NMC hearing or meeting from your line manager, mentor or supervisor. The report must comment on your progress in relation to:

a) Medicines administration.
b) Documentation.
c) Consent.
d) Communication.
e) Clinical decision making.

7. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
   a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
   b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

8. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
   a) Any organisation or person you work for.
   b) Any agency you are registered with for work.
   c) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
   d) Any current patients or clients you see or care for on a private basis when you are working in a self-employed capacity.

9. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
   a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.

b) Any investigation started against you.
c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.

10. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
    a) Any current or future employer.
    b) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

Unless Mr Munchetty-Chendriah's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Mr Munchetty-Chendriah or the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review a panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mr Munchetty- Chendriah. The NMC will write to Mr Munchetty-Chendriah when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Mr Munchetty-Chendriah in writing.

That concludes this determination.
