Interim order to be reviewed:	Interim suspension order (18 months)
Outcome of review:	Interim suspension order confirmed

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. A reviewing panel will be invited by the NMC to confirm the interim suspension order at this meeting and Miss Murphy will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Miss Murphy is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Miss Murphy will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on Miss Murphy's behalf or submit written representations about whether the interim order continues to be necessary. Miss Murphy must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Miss Murphy does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the interim order should be revoked or replaced, a reviewing panel will review the interim suspension order at a hearing which Miss Murphy and her representative will be invited to attend.

Miss Murphy should notify the NMC immediately of any material change of circumstances that may affect the interim order.

At any time, Miss Murphy or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed by a panel if any relevant new information becomes available.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Miss Murphy. The NMC will keep Miss Murphy informed of developments in relation to that issue.

This will be confirmed to Miss Murphy in writing.

That concludes this determination.
