Interim order directed:	Interim suspension order (18 months)

Decision on interim order

The panel decided to make an interim suspension order for a period of 18 months.

Unless Miss Noel's case has already been concluded or there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at a review meeting within the next six months and every six months thereafter. The reviewing panel may either confirm the order, or refer the matter to a review hearing. Miss Noel will be notified of the panel's decision in writing, following that meeting.

Where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, or there has been a request for an early review, a panel will review the interim order at a hearing which Miss Noel will be invited to attend in person, send a representative on her behalf or submit written representations for the panel to consider. At any such review hearing the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim order, or it may replace it with an interim conditions of practice order.

A panel of the Fitness to Practise Committee has still to deal with the allegations made against Miss Noel. The NMC will keep Miss Noel informed of any developments in her case.

This will be confirmed to Miss Noel in writing.

That concludes this determination.
