'For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.'

1. You must restrict your practice to a single substantive employer. This may be an agency or through a bank. Any single placement must be for a minimum period of 3 months.

2. You must not be the nurse in charge on any shift.

3. You must be directly supervised when administering and managing medication until you have been assessed as competent and formally signed off by another Registered Nurse. Once you have been signed off as competent, you must provide evidence of this to the NMC.

4. You must meet with your line manager or supervisor monthly to discuss and reflect upon your:
   a) Communication with patients, families and colleagues,
   b) Record keeping,
   c) Adherence to patient safety policies and procedures,
   d) Medication management,
   e) Escalation of deteriorating patients.

5. You must provide a report from your manager or supervisor to the NMC before each review in connection with your meetings in regard to:

a) Communication with patients, families and colleagues,
b) Record keeping,
c) Adherence to patient safety policies and procedures,
d) Medication management,
e) Escalation of deteriorating patients.

6. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
   a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
   b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

7. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:
   a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
   b) Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.

8. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
   a) Any organisation or person you work for.
   b) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
   c) Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.

9. You must tell your NMC case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:

a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.
b) Any investigation started against you.
c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.

10. You must allow your NMC case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
    a) Any current or future employer.
    b) Any educational establishment.
    c) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

The panel decided to vary this interim conditions of practice order and it will run for the remainder of the current interim order.

Unless Ms Sulyok's case has already been concluded, this interim order must be reviewed before the end of the next six months and every six months thereafter. Additionally, Ms Sulyok or the NMC may ask for the interim order to be reviewed if any new evidence becomes available that may be relevant to the interim order.

At any review, the reviewing panel may revoke the interim order or any condition of it, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or vary any condition of it, or it may replace the interim conditions of practice order with an interim suspension order.

In certain circumstances, it may be possible for the interim conditions of practice order to be reviewed by a reviewing panel at an administrative meeting. Ms Sulyok's case officer will write to her about this in due course.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Ms Sulyok. The NMC will write to Ms Sulyok when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This will be confirmed to Ms Sulyok in writing.

That concludes this determination.
