Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim conditions of practice order.

The panel has determined that the following conditions are proportionate and appropriate:

'For the purposes of these conditions, 'employment' and 'work' mean any paid or unpaid post in a nursing, midwifery or nursing associate role. Also, 'course of study' and 'course' mean any course of educational study connected to nursing, midwifery or nursing associates.'

1. You must be employed by a single substantive employer. You must not engage in any agency or bank work.

2. You must not be the sole nurse or the nurse in charge.

3. You must work with your line manager or supervisor to establish an action plan which covers the fundamentals of nursing practice. The action plan must include:

    a) All aspects of communication, including:
        i. Communication with colleagues, patients and patient families;
        ii. Handover; and
        iii. Delegation
    b) Record keeping
    c) Care planning, including:
        i. Safe and effective assessment of patient needs;
        ii. Assessment of urgent patient needs; and
        iii. The appropriate escalation of a deteriorating patient.
    d) Medication management and administration
    e) Safe and effective delivery of activities of daily living.

4. You must be directly supervised in all aspects of your nursing practice until you have successfully completed your action plan and have been deemed competent to practice independently by a registered nurse of Band 6 or above.

5. If deemed competent to practice independently by a registered nurse at Band 6 or above, you must notify the NMC within 7 days providing evidence of this in writing from your manager or supervisor.

6. You must have fortnightly meetings with your line manager or supervisor to discuss your action plan.

7. You must obtain and send your NMC case officer a report from your line manager or supervisor prior to any review hearing or meeting, highlighting your progress with specific reference to your action plan.

8. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are working by:
   a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting or leaving any employment.
   b) Giving your case officer your employer's contact details.

9. You must keep the NMC informed about anywhere you are studying by:
   a) Telling your case officer within seven days of accepting any course of study.
   b) Giving your case officer the name and contact details of the organisation offering that course of study.

10. You must immediately give a copy of these conditions to:
    a) Any organisation or person you work for.

b) Any employers you apply to for work (at the time of application).
c) Any establishment you apply to (at the time of application), or with which you are already enrolled, for a course of study.

11. You must tell your case officer, within seven days of your becoming aware of:
    a) Any clinical incident you are involved in.
    b) Any investigation started against you.
    c) Any disciplinary proceedings taken against you.

12. You must allow your case officer to share, as necessary, details about your performance, your compliance with and / or progress under these conditions with:
    a) Any current or future employer.
    b) Any educational establishment.
    c) Any other person(s) involved in your retraining and/or supervision required by these conditions.

Unless Ms Sunny's case has already been concluded or there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at a review meeting within the next six months and every six months thereafter. A panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the interim conditions of practice order at this meeting and Ms Sunny will be notified of the panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, or there has been a request for an early review, a panel will review the interim order at a hearing which Ms Sunny will be invited to attend in person, send a representative on Ms Sunny's behalf or submit written representations for the panel to consider. At any such review hearing the panel may revoke the interim order, it may confirm the interim conditions of practice order, or it may replace it with an interim suspension order.

This will be confirmed to Ms Sunny in writing.

That concludes this determination.
