Summary of review and findings
The University of West London (UWL), college of nursing, midwifery and healthcare (the college) present a modification to the approved independent and supplementary nurse prescribing (V300) programme. The current programme was approved by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) at level seven on 12 January 2021. The proposed modification is to offer the programme at academic level six as well as level seven. No other changes are proposed. On discussion with the programme team, there's a clear rationale for requesting to run a level six version of the programme. Ongoing requests from practice learning partners (PLPs) clearly identifies a need to run the programme at both level six and level seven to meet the needs of the workforce and to ensure they meet recruitment targets. The V300 programme is delivered on five occasions in each academic year. There's 26 days of theory, 12 study days and 14 days are directed online learning with a practice requirement of 90 hours undertaken in the practice learning environment. The programme is offered as a 40-credit standalone programme and as an option in the postgraduate diploma clinical practice programme and the Master of science (MSc) clinical practice and advancing professional practice programmes. The V300 programme is undertaken by nurses and midwives who share learning with allied health professionals. The programme is delivered across the Brentford and Reading campuses. The programme team deliver the programme on both campuses ensuring an equitable learning experience for students. Documentary evidence provided and discussion with the programme team confirms that only the programme learning outcomes and assessment levels have changed to level six and that all other aspects of the programme are unchanged since approval on 12 January 2021. The programme is mapped against the Standards for prescribing programmes (SPP) (NMC, 2018) and the Standards of proficiency for nurse and midwife prescriber (adoption of the Royal Pharmaceutical Society (RPS, 2016) competency framework for all prescribers) (NMC, 2018). The modified programme meets the Standards framework for nursing and midwifery education (SFNME) (NMC, 2018). The modified programme meets the Standards for student supervision and assessment (SSSA) (NMC, 2018).

The modification is recommended to the NMC for approval.

Provide an evaluative summary about the effectiveness of the partnerships between the AEI and their practice learning partners, service users, students and any other stakeholders.

There's documentary evidence of partnership working between UWL and PLPs. Communication is effective at strategic and operational levels. Communication between the programme team and PLPs is robust. There's evidence of continuous PLP involvement in the development and ongoing operation of the programmes. No new consultation with service users and carers or PLPs has taken place since approval of the programme on 12 January 2021 as the proposed modification only relates to the addition of another academic level.

In such instances, the student, practice supervisor/assessor and the AEI will need to evidence why it was necessary for the practice supervisor and assessor roles to be carried out by the same person

R4.6 ensure the student is assigned to an academic assessor who is a registered healthcare professional with suitable equivalent qualifications for the programme the student is undertaking

R4.7 provide feedback to students throughout the programme to support their development as necessary for meeting the RPS competencies and programme outcomes

R4.8 assess the student's suitability for award based on the successful completion of a period of practice-based learning relevant to their field of prescribing practice

R4.9 ensure that all programme learning outcomes are met, addressing all areas necessary to meet the RPS competencies. This includes all students:

R4.9.1 successfully passing a pharmacology exam (the pharmacology exam must be passed with a minimum score of 80 percent), and

R4.9.2 successfully passing a numeracy assessment related to prescribing and calculation of medicines (the numeracy assessment must be passed with a score of 100 percent)
