Summary of review and findings

The school of nursing sciences at the University of East Anglia (UEA) is an established Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) approved education institution (AEI) of pre- and post-registration nursing and midwifery programmes.

The pre-registration nursing programme was approved by the NMC on 25 July 2019. There is a full-time undergraduate Bachelor of Science with Honours (BSc (Hons)) nursing (adult, child, mental health and learning disabilities) programme delivered over three years; a full-time postgraduate route, Masters (MSc) nursing (adult and mental health) delivered over two years; and a BSc (Hons) nursing degree apprenticeship (NDA) route in adult, child, and learning disabilities fields delivered over four years. The programme has subsequently been modified to add a MSc Child route.

UEA are in the process of discontinuing delivery of the BSc nursing learning disabilities route due to a lack of recruitment. Following discussion with practice learning partners (PLPs) and recognising the needs of the local population there is support for a two-year programme attracting candidates looking for a faster route to qualify as a learning disabilities nurse. UEA are seeking a major modification to the approved programme to include a full-time MSc Learning disabilities nursing route.

The major modification is undertaken by documentary review supplemented by a teleconference. The academic team present extensive documentary evidence to support the modification. Documentary evidence demonstrates effective working partnerships with PLPs, service users and carers (SUCs) and students in the development of the new route. UEA continue to provide evidence of partnership working in addressing the Care Quality Commission (CQC) concerns through action plans and exceptional reporting to the NMC.

The Standards framework for nursing and midwifery education (SFNME) (NMC, 2018) is met.

The Standards for student supervision and assessment (SSSA) (NMC, 2018) are not met at programme level.

The modification is recommended to the NMC for approval subject to one condition. No recommendations are made.

Updated 16 February 2022:

The NMC condition is now met.
The SSSA are now met at programme level.
The modification for an MSc Learning disabilities nursing route is recommended for NMC approval.

Commentary post review of evidence against conditions:
UEA have provided a detailed process of the application of the SSSA to simulation hours that contribute to NMC practice hours. The process clearly identifies the roles of the practice supervisor, practice assessor and academic assessor and addresses the recording and interface with practice mechanisms. Condition one is now met.

Findings against the standard and requirements

Provide an evaluative summary about the effectiveness of the partnerships between the AEI and their practice learning partners, service users, students and any other stakeholders.

The development of the MSc Learning disabilities nursing route arises from discussions with PLPs and in relation to the discontinuation of the BSc (Hons) Learning disabilities nursing route. Discussions indicate candidates may be more attracted to a route that facilitates registration with the NMC via a full-time, two-year post-graduate route rather than the currently approved undergraduate three-year route.

The route has been developed in constructive consultation with all stakeholders including PLPs, SUCs and students. Documentary review confirms SUC are actively involved in recruitment processes, development, delivery and evaluation for the proposed route.

UEA continue to work in partnership with PLPs to address issues raised by the CQC and there is documentary evidence of effective actions taken in response to issues raised.

UEA have recently developed a new fitness to practise process. Students are triaged and referred to a university disciplinary panel chaired by a registered health professional. Documentary review and discussion with the academic team assures the visitor that the process aligns with the requirements of the code to ensure final judgements are in accordance with the Code to ensure public safety.

Students on the MSc Learning disabilities nursing route will have the opportunity to learn with, from and about other health professionals and discussion with the course director evidences a structured approach to ensure this activity occurs.
